The is for an enclosed vehicle that can be driven to and from events.
Cons:

Paul says that it is a commercial vehicle, but if not hauling people not a commercial license.
Security - break in has been attempted - silverton let us park it there between events.
One time it was left unlocked - Gene went and secured it when called
Insurance - Kam started some insurance research
Does it have to go under a person's policy? Or under the organization

Marketing tool - NHRA or Local events Cars and Coffee

Tow current trailer

Stable - not wobbly

Old trailer can be sold

More storage space

Carry current trailer load and more

What is the capacity of the trailer?

Build - ins

Speaker attachment

Air Compressor

Generator

Raidos

Storage Rack on the top

Bigger - The amount of stuff we bring to events is dependent on the storage we have. So bigger just means more?

Ease of loading unloading - taller -

Can drive the beast from place to place for work parties.

Auctions - As far as Phoenix - willing to work with non profit.

Eventual proposal for vehicles under 10K

Agenda for next BOD meeting - assign to Jill

Marlon - add discussion to the FB - get names for volunteers.

Pros - Vehicle can tow a vehicle

Dave Morales - subaru owner - - Eladio wants honest opinion - the club and current events - compared over time - "It's fun, a weekend adventure. More and more of the flat 4 guys are going to come and want to join. They like the idea of competition. Lots of watchers" Eric Stone is bringing participation.

Robert - It's too early for me to tell - too new. Impressed by the organization - not just going out and seeing things magically happen. The extra work of re-chalking the course especially after it rained. Robert liked the board on the trailer.

Negative - mindset of working - reluctant to work - it's not so much fun- really like - you need help? What ever let's do it! Don't run - work - rest - work

Let's try a 2 or 3 grid set up - run group one and run group 2 and then one moves out We do have 3 sets of painted cones
